Foodsmart Banquet Room
544 University Ave
St. Paul, MN 55104

We, the Board of Directors, would like to extend an invitation to you to join our Hmong Cultural Center 2007 Annual Fundraising Banquet. The proceeds from this event will go directly to fund programs at the center and purchase new books and materials for the library resource center. As a visitor and/or user of the resource center, you've seen first hand how helpful the variety of books and materials are for everyone interested in the Hmong community.

With your support, we would like to add to the collection so that when you visit again there would be a greater variety of materials to fulfill your needs.

Guest speaker, Dr. Gary Yia Lee, will present on:
"Hmong Culture: Past, Present, and Future"

Please attend our banquet and show your support! Monetary donations are accepted if you would like to show your support and are unable to attend the banquet.
